

Public Affairs Society
University of California, Los Angeles
Officer Application 2005-2006

The Public Affairs Society was established to promote undergraduate student interest in domestic policy and international affairs. PAS is a non-partisan organization that focuses on providing opportunities for career development, academic advancement, and intellectual enrichment. We strive to educate and foster collaborative discussion in the areas of public policy, social welfare, and urban planning, between students, faculty, and administrators.
